2021 Women in Austin Awards Announced

Austin, Texas—April 19, 2021—The 2nd annual Women in Austin Real Estate awards were announced on Monday, April, 19, 2021. All forty women selected in this year's awards were nominated online by peers, business partners, or others. They were then voted on by the WIA judges and chosen to represent the "Best in Class" group of women in the industry.

The Women in Austin recipients are chosen for their business acumen, community leadership, and altruism, but the final ranking is completed by public vote. This year's online voting will begin on April 23, 2021 and complete on April 30, 2021.

The Women in Austin program celebrates all women and shines a light on the best in Austin. It seeks to empower women through women and celebrates not only their successes but also their humility and likability. The program celebrates the best in the industry in order to inform others what winning looks like.

Congratulations to _____ for being named among the elite Women in Austin Real Estate in 2021!
